

Perry Shing Yan KO

Re-Founder

Actywell Digital Limited

Mr Perry KO is a business leader at the intersection of healthcare and sports technology, specialising in strategic partnerships and high-impact B2B innovation. As the Re-Founder of Actywell Digital, he leads cross-functional teams to deliver multimillion-dollar projects across the public and private sectors. Under the Hera Leto brand, his work integrates advanced bio-signal sensing for rehabilitation, chronic care, occupational safety and more. A former Hong Kong National Team youth football representative, Perry translates elite athletic discipline into a mission-driven approach to business leadership and digital health transformation.
